Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This house faces northeast on a hill overlooking the junction of Thanksgiving Lane and Old Town Road. It is a three-bay I-house with two-over-two double-hung-sash windows and a sidelighted and transomed central doorway. There are two brick chimneys laid up along the walls of the passage. The south gable end of the house has clipped corners. The gable roof is interrupted by a front-facing gable centered over the front entrance. The roof is sheathed in molded sheet metal. The front cornice returns on the gable ends. There is an original two-story rear ell and a one-story shed-roofed enclosed porch set in the angle created by the main house and the two-story ell. A concrete-block single-story wing was recently built onto the north gable end.

At the back of this lot is a tobacco barn, oriented with its gable end toward the east. Its vertical siding was secured with cut nails. Down braces are visible. There are hinged vertical panels for ventilation, but these, as well as the front gable-end entrance, have been nailed shut.
